

Reference: GF-TEST01

Accident Summary

Generated: 2026-06-13

1. Accident details

State: NSW

Date, time & location: 2026-06-10 17:30, Pacific Hwy Chatswood

Accident type: rear-end

Your vehicle: white 2020 Corolla rego ABC123

Other vehicle(s): dark blue ute rego unknown

Movement description: I was stopped at lights; they hit me from behind

Controls at the location: lights

Police attended: no

2. Damage map

Damage locations: rear, multiple

3. Evidence checklist

Outstanding — please gather before the lawyer callback

- Photos of all vehicles (front, rear, both sides, damage close-ups)
- Other driver's name, rego, insurer details
- Police event number (if police attended)
- Witness name(s) and contact details
- Dashcam footage (yours and/or theirs)
- Sketch of vehicle positions at moment of impact
- Any CCTV in the area that may have captured the incident

4. General information

In most rear-end collisions in NSW, the following driver is considered responsible for maintaining a safe following distance (Road Rule 126). Your description matches this common pattern. Whether it applies here depends on the full evidence. What I'm about to share is general information about how these types of accidents are usually understood under NSW road rules — it is not legal advice, and it does not determine who is legally at fault. Only your insurer, a lawyer, or a court can do that. A lawyer will review your full situation.

5. Next steps

A lawyer from Goldman Forge Legal will review the information you have provided and call you back during the next business day during 9:00 am to 5:30 pm, Monday to Friday. Please have your evidence (photos, witness details, dashcam) ready if available.

6. Lawyer callback details

Callback reference: GF-TEST01

Callback window: during the next business day

Phone number on file: (as provided)

7. Full disclaimer

What I'm about to share is general information about how these types of accidents are usually understood under NSW road rules — it is not legal advice, and it does not determine who is legally at fault. Only your insurer, a lawyer, or a court can do that. A lawyer will review your full situation.

Glossary

CTP — Compulsory Third Party (green slip) insurance — covers personal injury.

Duty of care — The legal obligation to drive with reasonable care to avoid harming others.

Give way — To allow another road user to proceed first; required at give-way signs and T-intersections.

Without prejudice — A communication made in an attempt to settle a dispute, which cannot be used as evidence in court.

Zip merge — Where two lanes narrow into one; the vehicle ahead has priority.

This summary was generated by an AI assistant and has not been reviewed by a lawyer. It is for your records only.